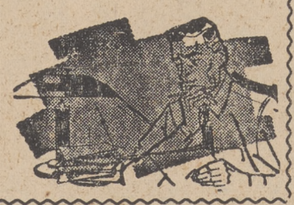
The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin



The Spending of the Family Bankroll—Yours!

Small families often have disagreements, and the County Board of Supervisors is no exception.

The current hour of discontent concerns remodeling the supervisors' offices.

As in every family, it is often the wife who demands that home be refurbished or remodeled to keep up with the Joneses — and incidentally, to make it a little more livable.

The wife role fell to Supervisors Harry Scheidle and Jack Walsh while Henry Boney and DeGraff Austin have played the Papa role by keeping an eye on the family bankroll and protesting that much of that nonsense is unnecessary.

Bob Cozens, who operates out of an office in the north part of his north county district, appears reasonaby neutral. He could be likened to the young adult in the family who is out on his own and doesn't want to become embroiled in a family argument.

There are few cost figures available because some of the activity has been unilateral suggestions to the architectural firm and, apparently, not all of the supervisors know what the others have suggested to the architects.

All of this, presumably, will become manifest within the next couple of weeks when the family will eyeball each other on the matter at a regular board meeting.

One thing that is firm was the approval last year of the family agreement to spend $60,000 for office improvements. This was to accommodate additional aides which now clutter the premises as the supervisors' loads become heavier.

But now the Papa supervisors are grumbling about the money it will take to provide all the niceties the Mama supervisors envision. Research from this office disclosed guesses ranging for $144,000 to $200,000.

Harry Schiedle, supervisor of this, the third district, said the $60,000 plan was outmoded the day his predecessors approved it. Supervisors now have secretaries as well as administrative assistants, plus a receptionist for the whole group. These people must have offices — so while they are installing new offices, why not refurbish the old ones?

A major expense will be air conditioning ducting, according to Scheidle. "We have no way of knowing whether that will cost $5,000 or $25,000 until we all decide on a plan," he said.

He also pointed out that the supervisors' new offices will be smaller that those of the County Chief Administrative Officer, the County Clerk, or the County Assessor.

Meanwhile, the father figures cringe a little regarding the loss of the conference room that is being whacked up for the bevy of secretaries. They scrunch a little more as they envison cork paneling and imitation beamed ceilings as some of the proposed decor. And the sensual colors in the new carpeting —— well, really!

Then there are other observers, outside the little family circle, who wonder whatever happened to the Taxpayers Association — the group that screamed so loudly when the offices were originally remodeled.

Members of the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Chambers of Commerce, who have recently been notified that the measly little $300 a year the County had been giving for publicizing San Diego County in local mailings will be given no more, are puzzled by the generous treatment the supervisors can give themselves and the poor-mouth treatment chambers are getting.

This isn't one of the big battles. Actually, it is one of the smallest. But taxpayers ought to know that supervisors battle about the taxpayer's bankroll about like Mom and Pop do about the family budget.

Was CIA in Maine?

There is a lot of pooh-pooh concerning the Central Intelligence Agency's involvement in the assassination of several world's leaders during this decade. Unprovable, and probably untrue reports concerning CIA make the whole concept extremely intriguing.

While Mary Jo. Kopechne is certainly not a world leader, she was consorting with one. And there are many who believe that Ted Kennedy is just as dead as a world political leader as if it were he who had drowned.

There are many questions that CIA should answer for the benefit of the nation it says it represents. There are many questions concerning the drowning that should be answered, too. The public has a right to know more about both of these matters as part of program to restore respect for government agencies on one hand, and a belief that law and order will be served, on the other.

Because CIA is super secret, it will require a stretch of imagination to to link Mary Jo with world intrigue. And if she was, she was merely a pawn. Almost any other attractive girl would have served CIA's purposes, providing CIA is responsible — even indirectly.

Let's look at a U.S. Press Assn. report that listed some of this decade's assassinations.

On May 27, 1961, General Rafael Leonidas Trijillo was assassinated in the Dominican Republic. Press accounts in Central and South America, and in Europe were more open and accusatory in attributing that event to the United States' Central Intelligence Agency than were the newspapers in this country. Because Trujillo had been an object of invective in this country for many years, nobody seemed to lose any sleep over this matter, and more than one publication dismissed the matter as "good riddance."

In August, of 1963, Fidel Castro was riding in an open jeep through Matanzas Province in Cuba. A bullet which was certainly meant for him ploughed through the body of his bodyguard instead. He didn't take very kindly to that narrow escape.

A few days later, he attended a reception in the Brazilian Embassy in Havana. Here, verbatim, is the Associated Press account filed from Havana September 8, 1963.

"Prime Minister Castro said Saturday night 'United States Leaders' would be in danger if they helped in any attempt to do away with leaders in Cuba.

"Bitterly denouncing what he called recent U.S.-prompted raids on Cuba territory, Castro told a reporter in an impromptu interview: 'We are prepared to fight them and answer in kind. United States leaders should think that if they are aiding terrorists' plans to eliminate Cuban leaders, they cannot themselves be safe'."

On November 1, 1963, President Ngo Dinh Diem was assassinated in Saigon. The record of U.S. Government involvement in that affair has been published widely. If it was RUDE AWAKENING — R. S. Kotnik of Lemon Grove went peacefully asleep Aug. 19 only to be jarred awake in the early morning hours when a tree outside his 8055 Canton dr. home toppled against his bedroom roof. Kotnik stayed awake the rest of the night, getting power restored to his house and workers cleared away the huge plant the next morning. No reason was given for the accident.

County Tax Rate Dribbles Off 2c

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A drop in the county tax rate of two cents, approved last week by the County Board of Supervisors, bore out the prediction of Chief Administrative Officer Fred Morey that there would be no substantial change in the county's tax position.

The county rate dropped from $2.37 to $2.35 for each $100 of assessed valuation.

The tax requirement is $53,617,301 and this money will be raised on all taxable property whether the property is within cities or unincorporated territory.

The amount of money to be raised points out the county's position as an arm of the state and federal governments because the total budget for fiscal year 1969-70 is $198 million.

Morey's statements of no substantial change may have come as a surprise to the San Diego daily press, especially the Evening Tribune, which has been forecasting a substantial increase.

The Tribune has been saying that even if the tax rates remain the same, property owners will pay higher taxes because of increased assessments.

The Tribune has ignored proposition 1A which reduced resident home owners5 assessments by $75 and the statement of County Assessor E. G. Williams that much of the 10.5 percent in the assessment increase came from new construction on the tax rolls for the first time.

Tax situations differ widely, of course, because of the various city, school district and special district money requirements, but it is possible that the average home owner will pay a smaller total tax for the coming year.

PROP 1A HELPS

Proposition 1A took household furnishings off the tax rolls but this will not be reflected in a property tax reduction because local government is not being compensated by the state government for the tax base loss.

The county's rate had to go up six and a half cents because of this loss of the revenue from $65 million in unsecured valuation.

Otherwise, the county's rate would have dropped by eight and a half cents.

The county did raise one tax rate. This was for the County Free Library System which is levied in all non-city areas and Del Mar, El Cajon, Imperial Beach, La Mesa, San Marcos and Vista.

This increase, however, should not be the basis of property owner complaints of ever increasing taxes since the jump was of one mill, that is, from $.128 per $100 to $.129.

The two cent drop in the county rate was not achieved without cost.

The contingency reserve was lowered from the recommended $1.5 million to $360,000 at the urging of Supervisor Harry Scheidle.

RESERVES REDUCED

Already this reserve has been dipped into with $117,000 going from unanticipated costs concerned with the sale of tax-anticipated bonds.

The other major drip in the budget was a holdup on major office renovations and capital projects. The Board of Supervisors intends to ask the voters for a bond issue to replace this money, but the amount and timing of the bond issue is unknown at this time.

In relationship to the overall tax on property, Morey and other county officials say that inflation of the currency and costs have more than outstripped the county tax requirements.

San Diego County continues to be among the lowest in the state in the amount of money raised per capita.

The county is also one of the poorest in the ratio of assessed valuation to the population.

If local governments were given the right to collect taxes from the worth of federal government installations it would be a real whee to the other property owners not so blessed with immunity.

A minor share of the cost of education of the sons and daughters of government employees, whether soldier, sailor, marine, or civilian, is paid to school districts in the form of an in lieu payment

The service population is as real as any other group of people.

Service men use city-county roads. They produce children. They unfortunately sometimes land in jail.

But whatever they do, they cost the local government money that is only replaced in minor ways.

Another Cut Set For Next Year

L.G. School Tax Cut 11 Cents

Christmas came early for Lemon Grove taxpayers last week.

It came in the shape of a tax reduction of 11 cents for each $100 assessed valuation for Lemon Grove property owners.

It would bring the previously announced tax rate down from $3.89 to $3.78.

The reduction is made in the override section of the tax bill which voters approved earlier this year. Originally pegged at 61 cents, it was reduced to 50 cents in keeping with Superintendent Byron Netzley's promise to use only that part of the override that is vital to quality education.

The Board of Trustees in setting up the reduction explained that the funds accrued from a new formula of assessed valuation computation. Previously the tax levy was based on a 10 per cent delinquency. This year the funds are returned by the county on a less-than two-percent delinquency factor. It is this fund that will be used to cut the tax rate.

The State made another reduction possible but that will come next year. The State increased its aid $10 from $25 to $35 a child, giving the district $44,000 more than last year. It cannot be used this year, however. Trustee Bert Cosby motioned that the funds be earmarked for tax reduction next year and the board unanimously approved. It should be a 10-11 cent reduction, Netzley said.

In an executive session, the board interviewed two applicants for the principalship of the Vista La Mesa school to replace Dr. Betty Higgins who resigned last month to take a position in Washington. In open session they selected Miss Lynn Dougherty, a full time vice principal of the 1,100-student North Terrace Elementary school at the Marine Base in Oceanside.

She was selected from 10 original candidates. The choice narrowed down to Miss Dougherty and Harold Hauser, superintendent of the Julian Elementary District.

The board said Miss Dougherty "is a strong administrator" and hired her.

She commences her new duties next week.

School, Registration Near

Opening of school is very near. Check the young, long faces crowding the beach at every opportunity, thinking each lazy day in the sun to be their last.

Grossmont Union High School District will register new students September 4 and 5, have scheduled freshmen orientation days September 12 and begin instruction Monday, Sept. 15.

Approximately 17,900 new and returning students are expected at Grossmont District campuses this fall.

Meanwhile, San Diego city schools have announced that applications for intradistrict special attendance permit will be accepted until September 12.

Details:

REGISTRATION:

Mount Miguel High School in Spring Valley and Helix High in La Mesa will register students 8 a.m. to noon and 1 to 3 p.m., Sept. 4 and 5.

ORIENTATION:

Mount Miguel High will hold Freshman Orientation Day September 12, from 8 a.m. to noon.

Monte Vista will begin at 7:45 a.m. and conclude at 11 a.m., while Helix is scheduled from 8 to 11:30 a.m.

INSTRUCTION:

All schools will begin instruction Monday, September 15.

Mount Miguel will hold classes 8 a.m. to 2:45 p.m.

Monte Vista schedules classes 8:30 a.m. to 2:59 p.m.

PERMITS:

Applications for intradistrict special attendance permits for the improvement of racial and ethnic balance in the San Diego city schools for the 1969-70 school year are now being accepted, city schools officials announced.

Applications will be accepted and processed through September 12 for the new school year beginning September 15. No permits will be granted after the September 12 date. Application forms are available at the Guidance Services Department at the Education Center, Room 3123, Park and El Cajon blvds., telephone 298-4681, ext. 241.

Permts will be granted only when there is available space in the school of desired attendance, and when transfers will improve the racial/ethnic balance of both the school of residence and the school of desired attendance.

School officials have indicated that limited space is still available in many schools. Certain schools at all levels can accept no more students.

Students now attending a school on the basis of racial/ethnic transfers need not process another request to attend the same school. However, if a student is moving to a new level — elementary school to junior high or junior high to senior high — a new application must be filed for a new permit.

Parents who want to apply for transportaton may file a request for this along with the request for the transfer.

CITY SCHOOLS

Questions from parents about entrance age requirements for kindergartners and first graders prompted city schools officials to restate the requirements of California law as a reminder to all parents.

To be enrolled in kindergarten this fall, a child must be five years of age on or before December 2, 1969. To be enrolled in the first grade, a child must be six years of age on or before December 2, 1969.

The only exceptions allowed are for children with certain orthopedic handicaps or children who are cerebral palsied, oral deaf, or blind. These children may be enrolled at the age of three in special classes established for them.

Written evidence of date of birth is required at the time of registration. Parents planning to enroll children in the city schools for the first time should also be prepared to verify that the chid is immunized against polio and red measles. This may be done through some form of written evidence or a parent's signature.

Registration of kindergartners and other new elementary school children is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 11, 1 to 4:30 p.m.

School Needs? See Local Merchants

It's time to face the facts of life.

September means school and school means books, supplies and new clothes.

Lemon Grove merchants, in anticipation, have stocked up with fall fashions, winter clothing and just plain back-to-school needs.

Keep an eye on this newspaper for news of special savings offered by the local merchants.

They're waiting, anxious to explain the facts of life.

Sirens Sound

The monthly test of the Civil Defense Warning Sirens will be conducted at noon on Monday it was announced by William B. Marty, the County's administrative officer for civil defense.

Citizens may cooperate in these monthly tests by calling the County Civil Defense Office — 448-4611 if the siren in their area does not sound.

The monthly testing of the siren warning system is necessary to assure us that these same sirens will function in time of real emergency, Marty said.

BEAUTY AND THE CORN — When Les Reid changed the name and style of operation of his restaurant he did two things. He gave corn on the cob with every steak dinner and he invited Mayvin Meyers, Miss Lemon Grove, to be the one-day hostess. The restaurant, at 8035 Broadway, is now called the Burning T Ranch and specializes in "Western Premium Brand" steaks. Free corn will be given to all diners again this weekend, Reid said. Cowboys and cowgirls serve diners.

LG Church of Christ Celebrates 75th Year

Seventy five years ago, a small group of earnest people gathered in a Lemon Grove building to form a church.

Thursday, September 11 at 7 p.m. the people of that church will gather with the congregation of the Alpine Unified Church of Christ to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of the beginning of both churches.

The event will take place at the Lemon Grove Church on Glebe road.

Speaker for the celebration will be the Rev. Dr. Harland G. Hogue, Carl Patton Professor of Preaching at the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley.

Noted as one of the outsanding authorities on early California Church History, Dr. Hogue has written articles and books on the subject and speaks about it enthusiastically. Vocal selections by soprano (Mrs.) Lois Utterback will enrich the evening's program.

Churches of the San Diego County Association of United Church of Christ have been invited to send representatives for this special celebration.

The September 11th event will be of special interest since it will mark the meeting of the Association at which the Alpine and Lemon Grove churches were both received into the Association 75 years ago. The general public is also invited.

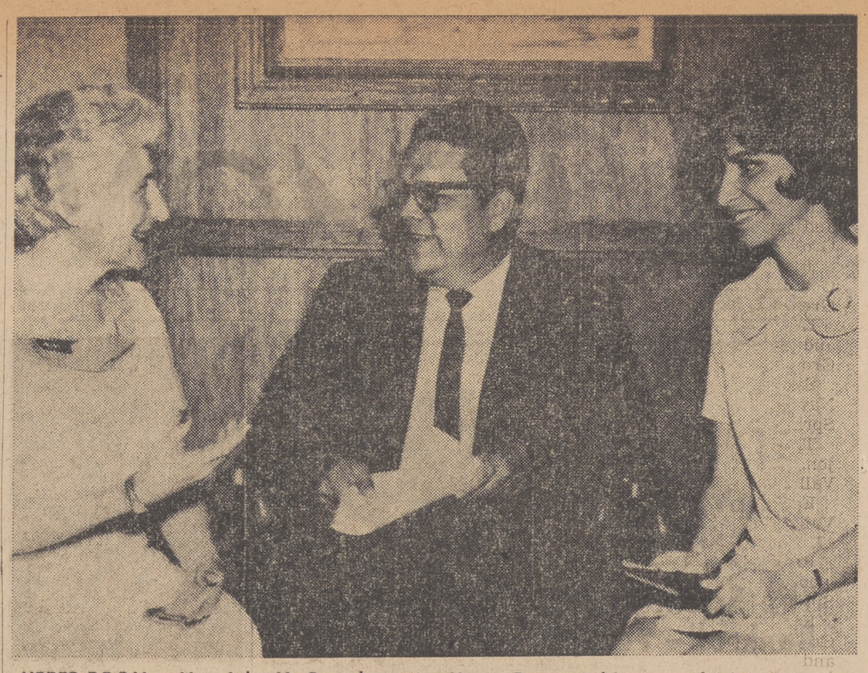
Some notes on Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Hessel. Many members of the Trinity Presbyterian Church and friends will remember the Hessels as being here several years ago. The Mission and Outreach Commission took advantage to bring Dr. Hessel here while he is on leave before accepting a pastor's position in a church here in the States.

Dr. and Mrs. Hessel just returned from the Philippines where he was a professor at Union Theological Seminary in Manila. He taught New Testament and Greek and also preached at the campus chapel once a month. Beside preach, he took the leadership in developing the seminary's outreach to the rural community surrounding the school where he began worship services for the community, started Sunday Schools, and a medical clinic. He is a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, and San Francisco Theological Seminary.

Mrs. Hessel served as registrar at the seminary and for a number of years served as chairman of the Philippine Evangelical Leprosy Mission. She is also a graduate of the University of California, Berkeley, and was a high school teacher before her marriage.



UPPER ROOM — Mrs. John M. Cate, hostess at The Upper Room in Nashville, Tenn., tells a visiting minister and professor, the Rev. Ariel Zambrano of Mexico City, about The Upper Room and its several ministries. Mrs. Mitzi Yount, translator, enjoys Mrs. Cate's explanations.

Upper Room Sends Prayers To World

The Upper Room is a focal spot where prayers are sent out for all the inhabitants of the world, a hostess there said.

Mrs. John Cate, hostess at The Upper Room, recalled that 9,000 persons visited the famed Upper Room Chapel during the month of May, 1969; 72,000 visitors came to Nashville to see The Upper Room Garden, Chapel and Museum in 1968; and a great prayer vigil goes out from Upper Room staff members for persons near and far.

"Many people think that The Last Supper, a famous wood carving by Leonardo da Vinci and the Pentecost or World Christian Fellowship Window are the only items of interest at the Upper Room," Mrs. Cate observed.

The hostess who gives meditational talk to thousands each year and sometimes hundreds each day, said there is much more. "First of all there is The Upper Room devotional guide itself, printed in 38 languages and distributed in 45 editions," she recalled.

Mrs. Cate them remembered the words of Lief Sevre, an editorial staff member, "This booklet of more than seventy pages is read in the hut and in the mansion, on an ox-cart and in the jet plane, in the deep woods of Alaska, on a speeding city subway. . . on an Asian riverboat, on the shores of the Artic ocean and in the blazing sun on the islands in the South Pacific."

Some persons come to Nashville to The Upper Room because they have heard of the downstairs and upstairs museum where Korean earthenware of 1550 vintage is next to "Apostle Spoons" and an ancient "fantail turtle" with two cranes atop his back gazes fondly at a nearby 14th century figurine, Mrs. Cate explained.

Mrs. Cate was speaking to a special visitor, The Rev. Ariel Zambrano of Mexico City, and a professor of Union Seminary there. Earlier, the Rev. Mr. Zambrano was a speaker at a regular Upper Room Wednesday chapel service.

In the service he told an audience of 200 persons "Our task is to be the church in the world; that is to minister to our 'brother' in the love of God. This is a great privilege."

Zambrano had urged his listeners to devote their lives to a work of service through love to our brethren in order that we may find Eternal Life.

Always and Everywhere

Let no one imagine that it is a strained and unnatural thing for one to pray. The contrary is much closer to the fact. It is far more unnatural for one not to pray. Prayer is one of the most natural of human instincts. Prayer is man's response to the divine will.

IRS TAX ANSWERS ?

F. S. Schmidt, DISTRICT DIRECTOR, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — Where should I write about my refund? I got my return in on time but I still haven't received it.

A — Write your IRS Service Center or call your local office. To help them locate your refund, give your name, address and Social Security number and the approximate date the return was filed.

Q — When we moved this spring, we gave away a lot of things to the Salvation Army. Are we allowed any tax deduction for this?

A — Yes. A deduction equal to the fair market value may be taken for items given to a charitable organization such as the Salvation Army.

Keep a statement or other record of the gift for tax purposes. It will help you substantiate the date, value and name of the organization receiving the gift.

Q — My son has a $500 scholarship for college. Will he have to count this as taxable income and will it affect our dependency exemption for him?

A — Income from scholarships is generally not taxable and does not have to be included by parents in determining a student's total support. So unless your son's scholarship has some special feature it should not affect the tax situation of either of you.

Vacation Can Go Up In Smoke, Expert Says

In summer, when they have time on their hands, many youngsters between the ages of 10 and 20 seek new things to do and new ways to be different, Dr. Raymond I. Downs, Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area chairman of the Tuberculosis & Health Assn. of San Diego & Imperial Counties, advised parents.

"One of the things they are likely to try is smoking cigarettes," he warned.

"Often the decision to begin smoking is made during the summer months. Some children try smoking at age 6, or less, and some have even taken up the habit at that early age. Many more have started smoking by the time they are 10," Downs said.

Unsupervised vacation hours provide more opportunities for them to increase their smoking. He urged parents to supplement the information their children receive in school-sponsored health education programs.

He added that parents should be aware that all schools do not teach about the problems of smoking and health.

Several studies have revealed that youngsters are more likely to begin smoking if their brothers and sisters, or parents, use cigarettes. The idea that most of those who smoke wish they had never begun, and the difficulty of breaking the habit, should be emphasized, Downs said.

Materials to help parents handle the smoking situation at home and materials that "tell it like it is" for youngsters who want to learn more about the hazards of smoking are available at TB association offices at 3861 Front st., San Diego, and 114 N. Sixth st., El Centro.

Old Globe 'Trouper' Is Eleven

Erin McLaughlin On Call for Atlas For 'Best Supporting Female Role'

By Max Goodwin

The 11-year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dennis McLaughlin may snag one of San Diego's theatre's top acting trophies when Atlas Award winners are named next month.

Erin McLaughlin, daughter of a Lemon Grove dentist, who lives at 1339 Cornwall st., Spring Valley, has been nominated for an Atlas for her performance in "The Innocents," a play based on Henry James' "The Turn of the Screw." Her nomination is for the best supporting female role.

"The Innocents," with a cast of four, was staged in November and December.

Atlas choices will be named by Old Globe Theatre Sponsors at a celebration at Old Globe Theatre at 6 p.m. September 20. It will be the 22nd straight year Atlas statuettes have been awarded. All nominees will be guests.

Erin began the stage career part of a busy existence in the Junior Theatre in Balboa Park in 1967 when she won a part in "Jack and the Beanstalk." Later, she took a part in "The Littlest Angel" at Actors Quarter at 5th and Elm in San Diego when she was nine. Simultaneously with her Globe activities she made a Barbee Doll television commercial which may currently be seen on channel 8.

Other Activities

Whether she wins an Atlas or not, she will still have plenty of other activities. For one thing, she's a pretty good swimmer. She is a member of the La Mesa Swim team. Last year she won a trophy for "the most improved swimmer" after copping two first-place medals in a meet in Escondido for freestyle and individual medley.

She also plays the piano and guitar and she sings. She played the piano and sang in "The Innocents." She plays and sings at home for her own entertainment. She took piano for two years and guitar a "couple of months," but she "does right well" at it, her mother says.

School? "Pretty good," Erin says. She got 11 A's and 6 B's last year at Avondale school in Spring Valley where she is now a sixth grader. "My Dad crawled up my back about the B's," she said.

She didn't have much of a vacation this year, she said. She was entered in the San Diego Youth Physical Fitness program which was held at San Diego State Colege. "I got a ribbon for speed and distance in running events, and another in the fifty-yard relay," she said.

$1 A Week Allowance

Like any other pert young lady she earns an allowance ($1 a week) for doing housework. "She doesn't do too much," her mother added.

"Boys are pretty nice, too," Erin said. "I like them. They are there, so you just like them."

She has a brother Shamus, with whom she gets along pretty well. And the family is a togetherness family. They weekend at a beach front place they have at Rosarita, Baja, California.

Some theatre performers have prognosticated a bright theatrical career for Erin, but Mother McLaughlin and Erin think of it as just another way to have some fun.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

Please explain the difference between "casar" and "cazar." Are they pronounced in the same manner? If they are, how does one distinguish between them in conversation?

There is a close similarity in the pronunciation of "casar" and "cazar." In Spain the first is pronounced "cah-SAHR," the latter is pronounced "car-TAHR." In some Latin countries they are both pronounced "cah-SAHR." This makes them more difficult to distinguish in conversation.

"Casar" (to marry) may be distinguished from "cazar" (to hunt) by the variations of use in sentence structure. Usually "casar" is followed by "con" (with). It also has "se" (himself, herself, or yourself) somewhere in the sentence structure. This may be seen in the phrase "El desea casarse con ella." (He wants to marry her.) In this case "se" has been added to the end of "casar."

"Cazar" (to hunt) may be placed in a sentence without the preposition "con" or the reflexive form "se." Thus we may say "El desea cazar tigres." (He wishes to hunt tigers.)

Practice phrases below contain various forms of "casar" and "cazar." You may wish to learn them with the aid of the automatic recording which says them for you when you dial 276-2762. The voice recording will say each word and phrase separately and pause long enough for you to say the same words and phrases.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "El se casa con ella." (ehl seh CAH-sah kohn EH-yar) for "He marries her."

Say "El casza tigres." (ehl CAH-sah TEE grehs) for "He hunts tigers."

USEFUL PHRASES:

Say "Ella no se casa hoy." "EE-yah noh seh CAH-sah OH-ee) for "She does not marry today."

Say "Ella cazo hoy." (EE-yah CAH-sah OH-ee) for "She hunts today."

OTHER PHRASES

Say "Cuando se casa usted?" (koo-AHN-doh seh CAH-sah oo-STEHD) for "When are you getting married?"

Say "Nunca." (NOON-kah) for "Never."

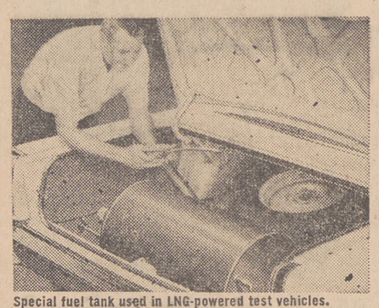
LNG helps us serve you better.



Special fuel tank used in LNG-powered test vehicles.

Take 600 cubic feet of natural gas. Cool it down to a chilly 258° below zero, and it becomes one cubic foot of Liquefied Natural Gas or LNG. That's what we do at our LNG plant in Chula Vista.
This plant enables us to buy more natural gas than our customers use in the summertime and store it. When usage soars in the cooler winter months, we revaporize it for distribution. This is a more economical way for us to buy gas.
With LNG, we can serve customers who are isolated from the Company's gas lines. We have also been using LNG to power vehicles. It has proven to be an efficient, economical fuel that nearly eliminates smog-producing pollutants.

Because LNG has so much to offer, we are now building a second plant with twice the capacity of the first. This is one of the ways your San Diego Gas & Electric Company is working hard to serve you better.

Dear Editor:

Perhaps some quotes from a letter received a few weeks ago from a friend in Vietnam may be interesting, and possibly encouraging:

"The 101st is the 'Screaming Eagles' . . . The disputed 'Hamburger Hill' was one of our Division's operations . . .

"My job is not the best one the Army offers. I carry a rifle and search the jungles. It is a job that I could not do without God's daily help. My mind and body are both strong, but I could not see what I have and could not stand under the burden without Him.

"My knees would buckle and my mind would flee to the shadows of insanity.

"Fellowship, worship services and witnesses are all nice but . . . personal contact (is) the only way.

"When the rounds are kicking up dust around you and death seems a heart beat away it is not your church attendance that counts but the lessons learned.

"Viet Nam and any situation where you are face to face with death are good tests of one's faith. I did not realize how strong my faith in God was until I came here. It is something that will forever change my life.

"I plan to marry a local girl in September. We have known each other for two years and feel this safe as most marriages. Once again I will have to ask and rely on God for help. Sure am glad He doesn't get tired of me bothering Him."

Let's continue to try to prepare each young person spiritually for whatever the future may hold for him or her — AND pray especially for our young men in Viet Nam.

Underwater Beautiful, Treacherous

The eerie underwater world can be beautiful. But treacherous.

Swimming through that world has its thrills and hazards. Overbreathing is one of the hazards.

What is overbreathing? It happens when a swimmer breathes deeply and quickly many times before diving. By this extra breathing, he hopes to build up his supply of oxygen. And, as a matter of fact, he can double or triple his time underwater.

But the swimmer who overbreathes may stay under a lot longer than he wants. He may never come up. Overbreathing can sometimes be fatal.

To avoid underwater tragedy, swimmers usually should not take more than two or three breaths before plunging into the beautiful, watery world. Two or three breaths.

What happens when a swimmer overbreaths? The bursting feeling in the lungs that signals swimmers to come up for air may never happen after overbreathing. And an unexpected blackout makes these swimmers lose consciousness — and drown.

Tragedies take place every summer on beaches across the country. Some of them overtake expert swimmers who overbreathe. Underwater disasters can be prevented if people know the facts about breathing.

More information about breathing and how the lungs work is available from your local tuberculosis and respiratory disease association. Before your next trip to the beach, check out the facts.

SOURCE OF TROUBLE — The front porch and yard of Mrs. Joseph Webb's house is practically entirely excavated or disrupted as workmen cleared away earth to find trouble spots, a crack in a new extension that allowed gallons of rainwater to flood Webbs' plush basement.

Flooded Basement Brings Anger, Lawsuit

Mrs. Joseph K. Webb, 9050 Valencia st., in Spring Valley, is mad.

"We were cheated," she said.

Her case in point was a recent improvement to her home, an extension built on the front of her Valencia st. house that included an ornate entrance to a basement well-equipped for fun.

Not that she and her husband are self-indulgent. But she supports five retarded girls at her home and keeps the luxuries around to help keep them entertained.

So, her basement is equipped with pool table, television sets, record players, a bar, a fireplace, well-stuffed couches, the works.

Small wonder that she was disturbed when gallons of water poured into her basement through a fault in the recent construction during the heavy Spring rains.

The basement, larger than many houses, was inundated with a good half-foot of water.

A contractor estimated that the cost to seal the crack would be $1750. Additional estimates of damage to tile and paneling ($2400) and to furniture ($250) skyrocketed the loss.

The initial project was constructed for $6770, according to Mrs. Webb, who said workmen completed the job in November.

The crack, several feet below the surface of the front lawn, and an inch wide at its largest, is in a corner of brick where the new construction joins the original basement.

The crack is exposed now, the front porch removed and practically the entire front yard covered with excavated dirt.

Mrs. Webb will order the necessary repair work done before more rains, but her dealings with her original construction company have deteriorated into the courts.

She has filed a lawsuit, but doesn't expect to get the case to court for six months to a year.

Meanwhile, she has expressed concern that other homeowners are falling victim to poor construction practices.

And she's still mad.

College Expects Crowds

Southwestern College continues to set new enrollment records every year, and Fall 1969 will be no exception according to Lloyd R. Cassady, Dean of Admissions and Guidance.

"We have already processed over 200 more applications this year than last as of August first," Cassady said, "Strong indications are that Southwestern will reach the 6000 mark in total enrollment for our fall census."

Cassady cautioned prospective students to apply for registration as soon as possible in order to get all necessary forms completed. He said that night students in particular should apply during August in order to take advantage of wider selections of courses.

"Many people who delay in making application, will find classes closed, and then it's a matter of taking what you can get," Cassady warned.

He said that continuing students, which are those who attended during the Spring semester, have been mailed validation cards for their Fall classes.

"I would also urge those students to mail back the validation card, as it is the only way we have of knowing whether or not the student plans to return. If we do not get the card back, we can only assume the student is not going to attend Southwestern in the Fall," Cassady stated.

He said special students who are planning to take less than six units do not need to file their transcripts, but they need to file residence and other application forms. Students who take more than six units, or who have completed twelve units at Southwestern are required to provide transcripts.

The Admissions office is open Monday through Thursday from 7:45 a.m. until 7:45 p.m. and on Fridays from 7:45 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Counselors and Job Placement services along with Veteran's representatives are on duty daily to assist students in those areas if help is needed.

CV Playhouse Replaces Hero

Due to a change in his work schedule, Don Aills, who had been playing the stalwart hero in Death Before Dishonor or "For the Sake of Her Innocent Child" at the Chula Vista Playhouse has been replaced by that ever popular, Cal Rothe, who had been playing the German Shepherd.

The show is still as fun as ever and the kids have a ball throwing peanuts at the villain played by Carlos McCall. Keith Kons is playing the part of the German Shepherd.

The show is playing Friday and Saturday nights through August 30 at 8 p.m. at the Hayloft Pit Barbeque (in the Knotty-Room), 1502 National Avenue, Chula Vista.

Tickets are $1, and are available at the door, and at Bradt's Aquarium, 2421 National Avenue, National City. For further information telephone 461-3690 or 422-9196.

A dance band is provided for the public's enjoyment after the play.

Social Security News

This newspaper presents this question and answer column about the Social Security program as a public service to our readers. The questions are those most frequently asked about Social Security. The answers are provided by Sumio Oto, El Cajon Social Security Office Manager.

Q. I understand that I can earn as much as $1680 this year and still get all of my social security benefits. I receive rental income from a home I own. Is this income included in the $1680 allowed?

A. No. The $1680 figure on earnings applies only to income earned from employment or self-employment. Income from rentals, interest, stock, etc., does not affect your benefits unless you are in the real estate or stock brokerage business.

Q. I receive a wife's monthly benefit, but have no work credits of my own under Social Security. Can I qualify for Medicare health insurance when I am 65?

A. Yes. Anyone who is entitled to benefits as the dependent or survivor of an insured worker will qualify for health insurance at age 65 without regard to his own work record.

Q. I have several cysts which my doctor says he will remove at any time. Since it isn't a matter of immediate surgery, is this service covered by Medicare?

A. This is considered elective surgery, and, unless it is for cosmetic purposes, it is definitely a benefit of Medicare. One of the rewarding features of Medicare is the improved health of our older citizens because elective surgery often corrects conditions before they become critical.

If you have further questions regarding the Social Security Law, contact or write the Social Security Office, 570 North Second st., El Cajon, 92021.

The office is open from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday and until 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. The telenumber is 442-0851.

Peggy Fleming To Be Starred In 'Ice Follies'

By Max Goodwin

Peggy Fleming, the star-kissed ice skating champion is coming to town.

Miss Fleming, a 21-year old brunette charmer, was here last week to show newsmen the style and form that won for her the vaunted Olympics Gold Medal in 1968 at Grenoble, France.

She made a quick appearance at the House of Ice at 70th and Highway 8 and displayed championship grace in her spins and layouts that will certainly attract throngs to see her when she appears at the Sports Arena Sept. 4 - 14.

She will appear with such stars as Ron and Cindy Kauffman, Richard Dwyer, Susan Berens, Anne Russel, Karen Kresge, Jill Shipstad and Ricky Inglesi.

Miss Fleming, who has been skating since she was nine, recently returned from a world tour. "The Russians are a great audience," she said. "They have a sense for the performing arts and when they see a good performance they give long ovations."

She admitted that her performance drew the greatest ovation.

Miss Fleming lives in Sherman Oaks. She is going "sort of steady" with a pre-med student. "It may be a while before I decide to get married," she said.

Show business is different from competitive skating, she said. "It does not demand as much discipline," she explained. It requires the perfection of performing a circle with a diameter that is twice her height following her own skate tracks within a quarter of an inch.

At the exhibition here last week, she performed a jump with 2½ revolutions — an amazing exhibition of skating prowess and grace.

Her relationship with newspaper and tv reporters was that of a wholesome young lady who lives in the neighborhood. That personality projects well. The Ice Follies public will love her.

She will make a fine addition to the 1969 Ice Follies when it premieres here next week.

Juvenile Crime Prevention Sought

SACRAMENTO — A Statewide "strategy plan" for prevention of juvenile delinquency will be initiated by the California Council on Criminal Justice in cooperation with the federal government.

The Council, which already administers funds under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act, was awarded $50,000 by the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare to develop the proposed new approach to delinquency problems. Actual funding is being provided under the Juvenile Delinquency Prevention and Control Act of 1968.

Kai Hartensen, CCCJ executive officer, said a "strategy conference" will be sponsored by the State agency this fall to review the best known juvenile delinquency programs from throughout the nation over the last 20 years."

Top juvenile delinquency authorities from across the U.S. will be invited to attend the meeting and present "professional papers" with new ideas for curbing delinquency. These will be reviewed by a top level committee of California delinquency experts who will select the best ideas as "models" for State and local programs.

The overall strategy will be coordinated with the California Youth Authority, State Delinquency Commission and County juvenile delinquency commissions throughout the State.

Allen F. Breed, director of the California Youth Authority and a member of the CCCJ, said it will be "aimed at prevention" rather than rehabilitation or correction.

He added:

"To my knowledge this particular approach has never been tried before. We will be 'picking the brains' of the best known authorities from around the country to see if we can come up with 10 or a dozen of the best possible formats for delinquency prevention."

Breed said these would be offered to local communities as "models" for new and innovative delinquency programs for financing by the State and federal government.

"All programs proposed for action will be carefully evaluated to determine what works, and what doesn't work," he emphasized.

Notification of the initial $50,000 grant was forwarded to the CCCJ staff by James F. Garret, assistant adminstrator of HEW.

In a letter to Martensen, he said:

"We wish you every success in your project, and we anticipate that its results will contribute to the national effort to prevent and control juvenile delinquency."

Builders Emporium Opens In SV Center

Builders Emporium opened its 23rd retail store in the Spring Valley Shopping Center on Thursday, August 21, with Everett E. Yount, president of the firm presiding at the official opening ceremonies.

This firm specializes in everything needed for the home by the do-it-yourselfer, such as tools, supplies and hardware.

The Spring Valley Shopping Center is located at 543 Sweetwater Road and Jamacha Boulevard.

Joining the Builders Emporium staff of executives, administrators and sales personnel were local community leaders, civic officials and businessmen.

Yount was assisted in the "Board-Cutting" ceremonies by Robert G. Sackett, vice president merchandise and Ted Scott, vice president operations along with other Builders Emporium executives. They described the Builders Emporium operation, its customer-service philosophy, its progressive merchandising plan and the way the stores are stocked and staffed.

Sackett explained how he utilizes new merchandising techniques to the advantage of the customer.

Sackett said, "One of the prime rewards in this business comes from knowing the sources. Therefore, I am constantly travelling throughout the United States, Europe and the Orient seeking merchandise of value to our customers who shop in the various departments of our 23 stores."

In announcing the All-Faculty exhibit, Tatro said, "The Art Department plans to present ten major shows during 1969-70. The ten shows will be about equally divided between the work of outstanding local artists and artists who have gained a reputation for excellence outside the local area."

The public is invited to view the All-Faculty Art Show. Viewing hours will be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday, with additional viewing hours from 5 to 7 p.m. each Wednesdy.

WILDCATS SIGNED

SDS Schedules 'Big-time' Opponent

San Diego State College made its second step in the direction of national University Division recognition when Director of Athletics Ken Karr announced the signing of a two-game football pact with the University of Arizona.

Dr. Karr, who was formerly Assistant Director of Athletics at the Arizona school, said dates have been sent for 1977 in Tucson and 1979 in San Diego. Actual game details and other details will be worked out in the future.

The pact-signing, coupled with the Aztecs stepping up from the College Division ranks, is looked upon as possibly the beginning of really "big time" football for San Diego State.

Aztec head coach Don Coryell was quite pleased with the signing. "It's a tremendous accomplishment for Dr. Karr to schedule a major college for us so soon," said Coryell. "I'm very enthused about the series. It's certainly another big step forward for us."

The Wildcats were one of the surprise teams in collegiate ranks last season. Arizona jumped from a 3-6-1 record and a fifth place finish in the Western Athletic Conference in 1967 to an 8-2 mark and a Sun Bowl berth in 1968.

Actually, the two-game series will not be the first meeting between the two schools. They have met six times previously with Arizona holding a 4-2 edge.

The Aztecs won the opening two games in 1931 and 1932 by scores of 8-0 and 13-0, but then hit a slump. Arizona topped SDS 7-0 in 1934 and then swept a pair of 1945 games by 28-0 and 46-0 counts. The series concluded in 1948 with the Wildcats triumphing 14-6.

Moore Hosts Fight Show

Archie Moore, former light-heavy weight champion of the world, and now a Boy Scout Executive will join forces with Lewis Lake, ex-professional basketball star and now Director of the ABC Boys Club, and Ben Griffith, former child star with the "Our Gang" film series, to raise funds for the San Diego Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Moore and the ABC boys will sponsor an afternoon of exhibition boxing matches on Sunday, from 2 to 6 p.m.

The ABC fighters will be matchhed against Dave Kibby's Smith River Indian Wildcats from Northern California, in eight exhibition bouts.

The event will take place at Moore's home, poolside, 3517 "E" st., at Wabash Freeway, San Diego.

Gulls Sign O'Shea

Kevin O'Shea, a 6-2, 205-pound right winger, has agreed to terms and will sign a professional contract with the San Diego Gulls, it was announced by the Gulls' General Manager-Coach Max McNab.

O'Shea was obtained by the Gulls in the reverse draft at the National Hockey League convention in Montreal in June. The Gulls drafted him from the New York Rangers organization.

The agreement concludes several weeks of negotiation between O'Shea and McNab. O'Shea will receive a bonus and a one-year contract.

Rockets Sign Kimball

Toby Kimball, 6-8 forward, has signed his contract with the San Diego Rockets for the coming National Basketball Association season, general manager Pete Newell announced.

The Rockets open the 1969-70 home season October 22 against Lew Alcindor and the Milwaukee Bucks at the San Diego Sports Arena.

SUPER STOCKERS — Carl Adams (No. 122) of Lemon Grove trails Gid Goins at Cajon Speedway super stock races Saturday. Adams is the top point leader.

Adams Still Leads Stockers

Dick Guest picked up points on leader Carl Adams Saturday as he was fastest qualifier, and winner of his first super stock main event of the year at Cajon Speedway.

Guest manuevered his machine in an exciting see-saw battle with Adams for thirty laps around the Speedway's ⅜s mile asphalt oval in 9:32.65, after qualifying in 19.29.

Adams had to settle for second place, while Ed Hale of Lemon Grove took third and Wes Osborne finished fourth.

Dean Erwin, of Lemon Grove, scored his third clean sweep in as many weeks, Friday, as he grabbed the three-lap trophy dash, a heat, and the twenty-lap main event, in figure eight competition.

Erwin took the main event from the pole position, leading from start to finish with the exception of one lap near the start of the race.

Mike Klein, of Spring Valley, took second in the main.

Erwin will go after another clean sweep in figure eight action, and the modified sportsmen will be fighting down to the wire in the points battle Friday night at Cajon Speedway.

Erwin has scored sweeps (winning the trophy dash, a heat, and the main event) with his 292 Ford for three straight weeks, and will definitely be trying for that fourth.

He'll get plenty of competition, however, from the likes of Hale, Lanny Pemberton, of Lemon Grove, and Mike Heuslein.

Heuslein tops the point standings for the 'eights', while Pemberton rides the third position.

DEL MAR, Cailf.—Del Mar's big holiday weekend will settle two championships and see the first appearance of Frank McMahon's Majestic Prince, who will parade after the second race Saturday.

Nineteenth running of the $60,000 gross Del Mar Debutante for the West's 2-year-old filly title will be the main racing attraction on Saturday. The six furlong special is expected to lure a class-packed field of young feminine stars, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grossman's Minstrel Miss, Sledge Stables Atomic Wings, Ken Schiffer's Last Hostess, Neil McCarthy's Regal Wine, Ray Bell's Court Gem, Mrs. Orin Tucker's Duke's Little Gal, Verne Winchell's Tales to Tell and Bent Tree Stable's Bold Broad.

Monarch Stars Ready To Lead

By SCOTT McGAUGH

Team unity is the continuing theme in all sports and at Monte Vista it is no different. But for a team to be successful, there has to be some standout, some team leaders.

And for Monte Vista, nearly every sport in the next six months seems to be blessed with some Varsity-experienced highly-rated, returning players.

In football, the 0-6-1 team is bound to improve with a new coach and plenty of returning gridders.

Vince Campoli, all-league runner last year will return. Tony Harper, an excellent JV runner last year, could team with Campoli for an excellent running attack.

Steve Etchings, if he can return despite a severely pinched nerve in his neck, should lead the Monarch defensive line.

The Monarchs' 12-0, first place CIF wrestling squad has half of its members returining.

Gary Nutting, Bob Skidmore, and Jerry Tancil should give the Monarchs enough depth and experience to match its record of last year.

Monte Vista's cross country squad was one of the best in the nation. They were 9-0, first in CIF, and had the best combined team time in the nation last year.

Half of those runners have graduated and the rest will be returning.

Tom Zink, Dave Rappolee, Tom Lux, Neil Wilson and Gilbert Arroyo will all be back on the Monarch course this year.

Bill Belander and Jim Bristol should be the basketball standouts as seniors while Bob Papciak and Gary Earle will return as Juniors with varsity experience already behind them.

The Monarchs were 6-8 last year but were 11-2 this summer with this quartet in the starting line up nearly every game.

Water Polo, in only its second year at Monte Vista, has some excellent players returning.

Rob Morell was named all CIF last year and John Krattli was an all-league goalie. High scoring Gordon Dunnill will also be returning.

These are the Monarchs to look for this year in the Monte Vista sports program. If they do well, then their teams should do well, and with that will come just that much more honor for the Monarchs.

HEISMAN TROPHY DUO — William J. McCann (center) director of the California Museum of Science and Industry in Exposition Park, looks on as Heisman Trophy Winners O. J. Simpson and Mike Garrett pose with their awards.
Garrett announced plans for the formation of the California Association of Professional Athletes, which will present exhibits on the California sports industry at the museum.
First exhibit scheduled for CAPA, of which Garrett is director, will deal with football highlights from his own, O. J.'s and Bruin Gary Beban's historic games.

State Pro Athlete's Museum Announced

Former USC All-American Mike Garrett, currently of the Kansas City Chiefs, announced the formation of the California Association of Professional Athletes.

Headquartered at the California Museum of Science and Industry, Exposition Park, Los Angeles, the organization will over a period of time present exhibitions of various professional sports as a major California industry. It consists of athletes, club owners and managers and media professionals covering sports.

Garrett said that the group's first exhibition, consisting of special awards won by himself, O. J. Simpson and Gary Beban, in addition to motion picture presentations of all three in action and all kinds of football memorabilia, is scheduled at the museum from October 17 through December 21, 1969.

Garrett listed sports figures who will serve on the statewide Executive Board of the C.A.P.A. They are: Art Rosenbaum, executive sports editor, San Francisco Chronicle; G. Ross, sports editor, Oakland Tribune; Harry Hache, sports editor, San Diego Evening Tribune; Stan Wood, golf coach, USC; Vince Scully, announcer, Los Angeles Dodgers; Jim Murray, columnist, Los Angeles Times; Sandy Koufax, National Broadcasting Company; Entertainer Pat Boone; George McCall, professional tennis promoter; Singer Andy Williams; and Gil Stratton, KNXT sports director.

Named to serve on the Associate Board of C.A.P.A. were: Professional Golfers Dave Stockton and Al Geiberger; Gary Garrison, San Diego Chargers; Wilt Chamberlain, Los Angeles Lakers; Tennis Player Dennis Ralston; Soccer Promoter Mario Machado; Power Boat Racer Jerry Ballard; Allen Slate, sports editor, Radio Station KABC; Duke Snider, announcer, San Diego Padres; Hugh McElhenney, announcer, San Francisco 49-ers; Dick Enberg, announcer, California Angels; Kermit Alexander, San Francisco Chamber of Commerce; and former Stanford All-American Ernie Nevers.

Others were: William Schroeder, director, Helms Hall of Fame; Aileen Eaton, boxing promoter, Olympic Auditorium; Loell Schrader, sports section, Long Beach Enterprise and Press Telegram; and John Hall, sports columnist, Los Angeles Times.

Garrett said that other members of the Associate Board would be announced as they are confirmed.

For Beer Biscuits

For a different and tasty biscuit recipe, substitute one cup of beer at room temperature for one cup of water.

MEETS DEACON — Charger rookie tackle Gene Ferguson will again see a lot of action this weekend as the Los Angeles Rams invade San Diego Stadium.
The huge lineman, who Charger senior assistant coach Joe Madro calls "my moving Sequoia" has been logging time filling in for injured veteran Ron Mix.
He'll get his hardest test Saturday night, trying to keep Rams' All-Pro defensive end Deacon Jones out of Chargers' backfield.

Chargers, Rams In Rubber Game

The San Diego Chargers battle the Los Angeles Rams for the summer championship of Southern California at the San Diego Stadium Saturday night at 8.

An appropriate finale to San Diego's "Super-200" pre-season schedule, the game will be the rubber match between the inter league rivals. The Rams vanquished the Chargers, 50-7 in 1967. The Chargers gained revenge 35-13, last year.

At stake is the California Lieutenant Governor's Trophy to be presented personally by Ed Reinecke. Such other visiting dignitaries as Roman Gabriel, Deacon Jones and Merlin Olsen will attend. The crowd is expected to be near capacity 50,000.

Aztecs Enroll Five JC Track Nuggets

The track and field picture at San Diego State has always been prety rosy, but the situation may blossom into a real bouquet next season.

Aztec head coach Dick Wells has lined up a quintet of junior college transfers who should bolster the ranks considerably.

Coming in from San Diego Mesa are Arnie Robinson (jumper), James King (hurdler) and Clark Dimond (half mile).

Wells has also recruited a sprinter in the person of Ed Steward from Santa Ana College and a distance man Dewey Swan from Southwestern.

Add to these four, 16-foot pole vaulters Rick Olander and Steve Aubrey, who sat out the last campaign, and the Aztecs should be battling the Pac-8 powers and San Jose State for supremacy on the West Coast.

Robinson competes in all the jumping events except the pole vault and has impressive credentials.

He's gone 25-6 in the long jump, 48-5 in the triple jump, and has a 6-7 high jump effort.

King has zipped over the intermediate hurdles in 52.2 and 14.7 over the high sticks.

Dimond was one reason for Mesa's high finish in the state JC meet as he won the half mile and has a life best of 1:52.9. Clark joined Don Bajema and King on Mesa's crack mile relay team.

The fourth new face, Steward, will add good depth to the sprint corps. Ed has clockings of 9.7 in the century dash and 21.6 in the 220. He also saw action on both of Santa Ana's relay teams.

Swan should make a fine running mate for Dimond as he has a 1:53.2 half mile and has turned in a 4:15 mile.

The pole vault contingent will get a boost from Olander (16-½) and Aubrey (16-2). Both vaulters transferred from four year colleges last year and were lost for the 1969 campaign because of an NCAA ruling.

The arrival of Dimond and King means a reunion on the Mesa as the pair teamed with current Aztecs Wes Williams and John Roberts in 1968 to win the state JC mile relay title.

Coach Wells is more than pleased with his new talent. "I'm extremely happy with our recruiting," he commented. "Along with the returning lettermen and the new men who will enroll this fall, we are looking forward to our best year ever."

The Aztecs will need a strong team as they are scheduled to face the likes of UCLA, UC Berkeley, Arizona, Arizona State, Cal State Long Beach and Occidental in dual competition.

Wells' crew will also face club powers such as the Pacific Coast Track Club, the San Diego Track Club and the Southern California Striders.

In addition, the Aztecs will appear in the key relay attractions such as Mt. SAC, Compton-Coliseum and the West Coast Relays.

Credit Cards Can Be Insured

As with other forms of wealth, credit cards also represent a potential loss.

Many insurance companies now offer low-cost credit card insurance that protects the policyholder from financial loss arising out of illegal use of his credit cards and charge plates, the Insurance Information Institute reports.

Registration Nears

students is scheduled for Sept. 4, 5 and 10, 8:30 to 11 a.m. each day.

Parents desiring to enroll children in any of the programs for physically handicapped children should contact Richard L. Johnson, 6404 Linda Vista road, San Diego, 921-11, or call 278-6164 for hearing handicapped or 278 6161 for all others.

LMSV DISTRICT

Registration of children enrolling for the first time in the elementary and junior high schools in the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District will begin Tuesday, September 2, according to Dr. David D. Pascoe, associate superintendent.

Parents shall bring proof of birth date for pupils being enrolled in kindergarten, and evidence of previous school enrollment for older children. Certain heath information, including verification of immunization against polio and measles, is also required, Pascoe said.

Classes will resume Monday, September 15.

Registration of students who will attend the soon-to-be-opened La Presa Junior High School, will take place at the elementary school in the student's attendance area, or at Spring Valley Junior High School where the La Presa Junior High School office will be temporarily located.

All La Presa Junior High School students who were in District schools last June have already been registered for the new school.

Until such time as the La Presa Junior High School is ready for occupancy, its seventh-graders will attend Parkway Junior High School; its eighth-graders will attend the Spring Valley Junior High School.

The La Presa Junior High School attendance area will be made up of the Avondale, Rancho and Kempton Elementary Schools attendance areas; the La Presa Elementary School attendance area (except that area known as Edgewater Estates); and that portion of the Bancroft attendance area south of a line created by the westerly extension of Eucalyptus street to Sweetwater road.

All residence numbers on Helix street and Sweetwater road above 1900 will be in the Spring Valley Junior High School, and all those below 1900 will be in the La Presa Junior High School.

Children attending local schools at the close of the semester last June need not reregister. Children who will be attending Distict schools for the first time in September must be registered.

Both oral and Salk vaccines are acceptable polio inoculations for registration. Excluding those parents who have indicated they are adverse to the new polio law, polio inoculations are mandatory. Similar exemption may be obtained for the measles vaccination.

Street Debris Catches Eye Of Chamber

The L.G. Chamber of Commerce in its first in a series of breakfast meetings, concerned itself Tuesday with street debris in Lemon Grove.

President Frank Shughrue, in discussing a street cleaning program said the "Broadway looks like a dump".

He said that the problem would be discussed in depth at the group's next meeting Sept. 29. That is the upcoming date of the new meeting schedule. Meetings will be held on the last Tuesday at 7:30 a.m. at L.G. Bowlero.

Shughrue also announced that the County Board of Supervisors was "phasing out" a $300-a-year payment to the Chamber for publicizing the County.

Diabetes Speaker Is Psychiatrist

"Psychological Aspects of Diabetes" will be the topic of discussion at the next regular meeting of the San Diego County Chapter of the Diabetes Association of Southern California when it meets on September 4th, 7:30 p.m. Veterans Memorial Bldg., Balboa Park in San Diego.

Dr. Saul Karlen, Psychiatrist, will be the principal speaker.

Bill Eastman, Chairman of the San Diego Chapter, issued a general invitation to the public to attend the meeting

State's School Districts

At last report, California had 1,144 operating school districts. Of these 251 were unified districts, 719 elementary districts, 106 high school districts and 68 junior college districts.

not a CIA operation, then it certainly was the logical culmination of the massive, orchestrated character assassination campaign inspired against Diem by American authorities, official and clandestine.

On November 22, 1963, John F. Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas.

On June 5, 1968, Robert F. Kennedy was struck down in Los Angeles.

On July 19, 1969, Mary Jo Kopechne drowned at Dyke Bridge on the island of Martha's Vinyard.

Few know how strong were the ties, or the animosities between President Kennedy, his brothers and CIA. The CIA, it was said, was strong enough to reverse him in the Bay of Pigs matter, sending to death hundreds of Cuban patriots.

Nor has the whole story of the Russian missile emplacement in Cuba been told. Nor the follow-up visit of elements of the Russian fleet to Cuba. Nor the loss of pride that went with the loss of the Pueblo in Korea.

If credence could be given to the acts these events suggest, it would suggest that CIA is playing in interpol big leagues with a rank amateur team.

New Home Owner Stricken Friday

Early last week, John and Laura O'Brien, of Butler Hall, Manhattan, N.Y., bought the home of Robert and Virginia Von Willer at 3157 Crane st. where the Von Willers have lived for 24 years.

Jesse Ham of Art Leitch Co. made the sale for an undisclosed amount.

Von Willer is a plastering contratcor.

O'Brien is a retired federal civil service employee. The couple have a son, John Michael.

The Von Willers have taken up residence on Glebe rd. prior to building a new home at the Bonita golf course.

Friday, while the O'Briens were moving into their new home, John O'Brien, 84, fell dead.

Funeral arrangements information was not available.

Vista La Mesa Principalship Is Awarded To Lyn Dougherty

Lyn Dougherty, a vice-principal of the North Terrace Elementary school on the Marine Base at Oceanside, has been named principal of Vista La Mesa school in Lemon Grove.

She replaces Dr. Betty Higgins who resigned to take a post in Washington, D.C.

Miss Dougherty, who lives now in Rancho Bernardo but who calls La Canada "home" was chosen by the L.G. Board of Trustees Thursday night from a candidate's list of ten. The Board said that Miss Dougherty is a fine, strong administrator.

She said later that she enjoys working with the child-ren-adult combination. "I have found it useful to have good communications with parents. By exchanging information with them, the pupil problem is usually reduced to nothing," she said.

"I worked hard to get the assignment after I met the school board," she said. "The members comprise the kind of board I have always wanted to work with. They appeared to be straight-forward and sincere."

Miss Dougherty was born on Colorado and taught grades 4-6 in La Canada. "I'm still a teacher at heart," she said. "I have always enjoyed working with people on a community-professional basis. I never lose sight of my belief that school children are our most valuable national resource and the type of training they acquire in the elementary school-home combination, shapes their role as future citizens."

Her hobbies are music, golf and interior decorating. The later came from her hospitalized father, who was a decorator.

Water Tax Hiked Cent

An increase of one cent in the tax rate of the Metropolitan Water District for the fiscal year 1969-70 was approved by its Board of Directors.

This brings the District's tax rate from 16 cents for each $100 of assessed valuation to 17 cents.

The one-cent increase was required in order to meet the District's mounting costs to obtain and distribute the water from Northern California scheduled to arrive in 1971.

The District's payments for its share of the costs of the $2.7-billion State Water Project will amount to $35 million this fiscal year or $10 million higher than was paid in 1969-69.

In addition, the District has under way a billion dollar expansion program to deliver the northern water to its member agencies. It has already spent approximately $250 million on this program.

MWD has contracted with the state for ultimate delivery of 2,011,500 acre-feet annually of northern water — or nearly two billion gallons a day.

This was the second year in a row that the District's tax rate was raised. A two-cent hike last fiscal year was the first increase in 23 years.

Present estimates are that the rate may have to be raised a few more cents over the next few years before leveling off and then beginning to decline.

The District now supplies one billion gallons of Colorado River water a day to more than ten million people in Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego and Ventura counties.

How Beer Is Made

Choice-grade grains, pure water, exact temperature at various stages of brewing, precise timing of operations, close control of yeast action, clinic-clean apparatus and dust-free atmosphere, all are vital to the production of malt beverages.

L.G. To Host School Lunch Workshop Wed.

Lemon Grove School District will host San Diego County's tenth annual School Lunch Workshop here Wednesday.

More than 400 school food service people are expected. The event is sponsored by the Mt. Helix Chapter of the California Food Service Association and it will be presented at the Lemon Grove Junior High School, 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Byron Netzley, L.G. Elementary School District Superintendent, will greet visitors.

Approximately 20 food and supply firms will display products.

Mrs. Ruth Pfister, workshop coorddinator, and Food Service Supervisor for the L.G. School District, will preside.

FUND-RAISING FUN

Many people are putting the "fun" into fund-raising by the staging of beer parties. Hospital guilds, alumni associations and various other groups and clubs use the profit from beer parties for their favorite charities.
